Abstracts

Gable top liquid cartons remained the most significant pack type for plant-based dairy products in the US in 2022, and continued to see slight growth in packaging volumes in this year, due to the popularity of this packaging format for plant-based milk. Meanwhile, even though shaped liquid cartons saw a slight dip in pack type share for plant-based dairy in 2021 when compared with 2020, its share got back on track and increased once again in 2022. The main reason for this is that the unique shap...
