Abstracts

In 2023, polishes recorded low retail value growth, along with negative retail volume sales, whereas in the previous two years, inflation had supported a stronger value performance. This directly relates to the negative performance of floor polish and furniture polish, which hold a combined retail value share of 89%. Over the years, these products have been waning in popularity as they are increasingly considered a discretionary product compared to other home care categories. In addition, there...
