Abstracts

With rising inflation impacting price points, 2023 saw double-digit retail value growth. However, retail volume declined in all areas, with deepest declines noted in metal polish and furniture polish. The decline observed in both floor and furniture polishes is due to the diminishing use of classic furniture and wooden floors across the country. Traditional wooden furniture is viewed as outdated by many, while real wood floors are considered too costly. The shift towards modern furniture, which...
