Abstracts

Portable players continues to see weak demand overall and remain in a negative figure slump, albeit volume sales have improved from the steep declines seen in 2022. Overall, the advances in technology seen in multifunctional consumer electronics such as smartphone and tablets, mean that dedicated portable players are seeing a reduced demand. This is evidenced by the strategies of players in the category, for example as seen with Apple discontinuing its iPod in 2022, following years of slow sales...
