Abstracts

Retail volume sales of e-readers continued declining during the review period and appear to be in long-term decline with a further heavy decline set to be seen in 2023. The category has in part been impacted by the popularity of smartphones with some younger consumers reading books on these devices rather than purchasing separate e-readers. Furthermore, there is still a strong preference for printed books among many consumers in Spain. Unlike some other trends, the preference for printed books i...
