Abstracts

Portable players continues to see healthy growth in retail volume terms in 2023, although this is being entirely driven by the strong demand for wireless speakers. Consumers appreciate the convenience of being able to create a fast connection between wireless speakers and their laptops, tablets and smartphones. Additionally, they are also easy to move around the home and normally have a very long battery life which means they can be taken on trips outside the home, such as to the beach, on picni...
