Abstracts

Power tools suffered from sluggish sales in the review period, despite significant product innovations and improvements. This was due to the products' dependence on macroeconomic conditions, which have been highly volatile since 2008. Key markets such as the US are expected to see a positive development in the property market, which should propel some growth in power tools. Other regions remain tough, with ongoing austerity in Europe and cooling down in emerging markets.

Euromonitor International's Power Tools: Category Overview global briefing offers the big picture view of the size and shape of the Home and Garden market. The report delivers strategic insight into some of the key areas of the market, including emerging regions, countries and categories, as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies opportunities, analyses leading companies and brands, and offers analysis of major factors influencing the market. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success

Product coverage: Gardening, Home Furnishings, Home Improvement, Homewares.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
