Prepaid cards continued to grow robustly in 2017 in terms of number of cards as well as value of transactions. The category has posted continuous double-digit growth every year since 2001. Open-loop prepaid cards continued to account for the bulk of prepaid cards in circulation, at just under two thirds, but accounted for less than half of payment value in 2017. Conversely, closed-loop cards led in terms of value sales driven by gift cards. These cards are easier to buy at many retailers and sav...
