Abstracts

Pre-paid cards saw the number of transactions and transaction value bounce back in 2021 and will witness a further acceleration in growth in 2022. This is largely a result of the relaxation of pandemic measures, with closed loop cards used for public transport back in use and open loop cards benefitting from the return of foreign travel. The category has also seen several new products introduced, sparking new interest in pre-paid cards. These are primarily being aimed at the youngest part of the...
