Abstracts

In 2023, premium beauty and personal care products in Belgium registered a negative performance in volume terms, while value growth rose at a pace. Inflation generated strong price rises in 2023 compared to 2022, with purchasing power remaining under pressure. Consumers were much more conservative in their spending behaviour, although this impacted beauty products much more than personal care products. Consumers purchased less frequently and were more careful with quantities used so as to make p...
