Abstracts

Premium beauty and personal care was more resilient and saw a slightly slower current value decline in 2022 compared with the mass segment. On the one hand, premiumisation continued, with consumers' awareness of skin care and anti-ageing gradually strengthening and deepening, and the consumer base for premium skin care products becoming younger. At the same time, continuous education by brands and the market, as well as a media boost, made consumers more anxious in the face of skin problems, and...
