Abstracts

In a marked contrast to the dynamic current value growth in 2021, premium beauty and personal care recorded marginal value growth in 2022. Higher inflation has been a key issue for the premium segment in Denmark, which was more severely impacted than the mass segment. Although Danes have a strong affinity for premium beauty and personal products, some consumers switched to mass and private label products in order to save money. Other consumers in the premium segment continued purchasing the same...
