Abstracts

India is one of the fastest growing economies in the world, with a large young population. Its rising GDP per capita is fuelling the growth of the economy. Real GDP in India continued to expand in 2022, recording 7% growth, outperforming the average growth of 4% in Asia Pacific. With rising disposable incomes in the country, consumers have shown an inclination to spend more on luxury and premium products. According to Euromonitor International's Economies and Consumers data, the disposable incom...
