Abstracts

In 2022, overall premium beauty and personal care returned to decline in current value terms. However, this was after an exceptional year in 2021, and sales remained above the pre-pandemic level. In addition, it was only the largest category within premium beauty and personal care, premium skin care, that saw falling sales in 2022, with a significant double-digit decline, which was due mainly to the downturn in sales of premium skin care sets/kits. These used to be a popular choice for gifting w...
