Abstracts

Processed fruit and vegetables in Japan is set to see a notable decline in retail volume terms in 2023, while retail current value sales are set to maintain solid growth due to rising unit prices. The decline in volume terms is mainly due to a rebound after a surge in demand for consumption at home and stockpiling in 2020 during the pandemic. In 2020, consumption occasions rapidly pivoted towards the home, as many employees switched to remote working and children did not go to school. This led t...
