Abstracts

The unprecedented situation that unfolded over the course of 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic was favourable for sales of processed fruit and vegetables generally. In particular, shelf stable fruit recorded a major acceleration in its growth rate as consumers practising social distancing and home seclusion looked to stock up on non-perishable foodstuffs. Demand for shelf stable fruit remained strong in 2021, assisted by the sustained efforts of the leading company, Del Monte Philippines, to sti...
