Abstracts

Processed meat and seafood in Morocco is not yet saturated, and is therefore expected to continue to record good retail volume and current value growth in 2020, albeit at a slower rate than seen during the review period. Processed meat and seafood products are increasingly considered go-to foods when Moroccans do not have the time to cook, as they use them in sandwiches and snacks. This is especially the case as an increasing number of women are joining the workforce and therefore lack the time...
