Abstracts

Processed meat and seafood is expected to benefit from COVID-19, with higher retail volume growth than 2019. However, retail volume growth is expected to be stifled somewhat by dramatic price rises of nearly a fifth. However, some products escaped the steep price rises. With COVID-19 having a worrying effect on consumers' pockets in 2020, the government negotiated a voluntary agreement with retailers and manufacturers to not increase prices of certain essential foods, including products such as...
