Abstracts

The processed meat and seafood's current retail volume growth in 2023 is set to be slower than the previous year; the result of ongoing economic hardship and the growing maturity of most product areas. Price fluctuations continue to challenge players in Algeria as local production of raw ingredients is too low to sustain the country's needs. Additionally, the category has faced increased competition from fresh meat and seafood sold at open markets. Demand has been further subdued by unit price h...
