Abstracts

In 2023, retail volume sales of processed meat, seafood and alternatives to meat remained in decline due to inflationary pressures. Since 2022, increases in the cost of raw materials, shipping costs, labour wages and energy have led to substantial price rises in this category, keeping value sales on a positive growth trajectory. Meat and seafood alternatives is the only subcategory bucking the downturn in consumption, largely because it is growing from a small base, but also because of the growi...
