Abstracts

Inflation exerted a strong influence on the performance of the economy, company activities and consumer spending patterns in many countries, including Indonesia, by the end of the review period. With the rising cost of fuel and other types of energy and staple foods, the haul of fish/seafood by fisherman suffered. This limited the volume of fish/seafood available for exported to overseas markets, as well as for domestic consumption. Although the supply of fish/seafood was reduced, the demand for...
