Abstracts

In Sweden, the market for processed meat, seafood, and meat alternatives experienced a return to normal sales in 2023 after the pandemic. The foodservice sector recovered as dining out rebounded, while retail sales reverted to pre-COVID-19 levels. However, the year also witnessed high inflation and increasing production costs, leading to rising food prices. As a result, Swedes turned their attention to traditional, lower-priced products, impacting premium and plant-based offerings. Private label...
