Abstracts

Despite another low retail unit volume decline in 2022 in line with greater mobility outside of the home, demand for processed meat and seafood packaging remained above pre-pandemic levels, driven by urbanisation in Romania. With consumers' lifestyles accelerating, they remain drawn to the convenience offered by processed meat and seafood. The expansion of modern retail outlets in Romania has also played a significant role in this by making chilled and frozen processed meat both more accessible...

Euromonitor International's Processed Meat and Seafood Packaging in Romania report offers insight into key trends and developments driving packaging across the category. The report also examines trends and prospect for various pack types and closures: metal packaging, rigid plastic, glass, liquid cartons, paper-based containers; flexible packaging.

Product coverage: Meat and seafood substitutes inc Tofu, Processed Meat, Processed Seafood.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
