Abstracts

COVID-19 will have a positive overall impact on ready meals in 2020. The closure of foodservice outlets for large portions of the year was to the benefit of ready meals, which served as a convenient alternative to eating out. Home seclusion did boost the amount of cooking happening, however, ready meals often served as a welcome respite from the hectic cooking process. Despite dire economic circumstances in Egypt, frozen ready meals in particular are valued for their convenience as tired consume...
