Abstracts

While unit volume growth in ready meals packaging was much slower in 2021 than it had been a year earlier, it was still positive, as the categories experiencing difficulties in 2020, ie the chilled products and prepared salads, returned to recording positive growth in 2021. When COVID-19 arrived in Canada in 2020, consumers were spending a lot of time in home seclusion, including remote working/learning, with the widespread closure of consumer foodservice outlets also being seen. This meant that...
