Abstracts

Due to the outbreak of COVID-19 in 2020, the government in Germany put strict restrictions in place in March, requiring consumers to spend more time within the household, working and learning from home where possible. In addition, foodservice venues were closed for dine-in experiences, which meant that consumers had to spend more time eating meals cooked or prepared at home. This boosted sales for dinner mixes, which saw strong growth in 2020 as a consequence of home seclusion. Folding carton is...
