Abstracts

Even before the onset of COVID-19, the review period had seen strong growth in demand for ready meals packaging, but the pandemic added impetus to this trend in 2020. With consumers spending more time at home during the year, they ate more meals there. However, with a significant number of people working from home, not everyone had the time to regularly prepare home-made meals. This boosted demand for ready meals packaging, particularly frozen ready meals packaging and chilled ready meals packag...
