Abstracts

With many consumers spending more time at home due to the pandemic, the home cooking trend was bolstered in 2020. This led to a decline in ready meals packaging volumes in 2019-2020 as more people cooked from scratch. In 2021, the home cooking trend somewhat subsided, as restrictions eased, and consumers returned to busier lifestyles. Some consumers, even if they remained at home more often than they did pre-pandemic, started turning to ready meals as their interest in cooking subsided. As such,...
