Abstracts

In 2019, Italy's recreation and entertainment industry continued to expand, although at a slightly slower rate compared to the previous year. The country's services sector, including entertainment and recreation, lacked strong support from Italian consumers, as the country's households experienced a decline in total expenditure amid unfavourable labour market indicators. Growth in Italy's average wage lagged in 2019, while growth in disposable incomes decelerated, hindering the ability of consum...
