Abstracts

The Redbush Tea Company will continue to pursue growth and market share through its specialisation in red bush tea, which as part of the “other tea” category is one of the most dynamic categories in the whole tea market. However, the company is coming under pressure from a number of other competitors who are far bigger and better able to compete more aggressively on price and on the marketing front. In order to tackle this, The Redbush Tea Company will have to continue to trade on its...
