Abstracts

Refrigeration appliances saw a decline in retail volume sales in the Netherlands in 2023 as consumers continued to be cautious about spending on big purchases. The boom in sales during the outbreak of COVID-19 also accounts for the decline in retail volume sales, as consumers are not finding it necessary to replace their appliances. Despite the increase in average unit prices, this could not counteract the fall in retail volume sales, and there was an overall decline in value sales. Built-in ref...
