Abstracts

Retail current value sales of adult incontinence remain negligible in Cameroon. While the number of elderly consumers in Cameroon is growing, this consumer group remains small at well under one million people in 2021. As a result, demand for retail adult incontinence is quite limited. Consumer awareness of adult incontinence is also very low. The distribution of these products also remains limited, as they are only available in a small number of chemists/pharmacies and supermarkets in Douala and...
