Abstracts

Following robust double-digit value growth over much of the review period, a trend already emerging prior to the pandemic, e-commerce sales in Chile started to stabilise in 2022 in line with greater mobility outside of the home, although they remained significantly higher than 2019 levels. While consumers have become accustomed to the ease of shopping online and often competitive prices, the costs associated with shipping have increased. During the pandemic, many online retailers offered free de...
