Abstracts

E-commerce in Denmark saw a return to growth in current value terms in Denmark in 2023 even as consumers continued to return to in-store shopping and the economic situation resulted in many consumers trying to limit spending. Although the rate of inflation declined during 2023, it still impacted prices and part of the retail e-commerce channel's growth was due to price increases caused by inflation.

Euromonitor International's Retail E-Commerce in Denmark report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Product coverage: Retail E-Commerce by Product, Retail E-Commerce by Type.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
