Abstracts

In 2023, e-commerce in Finland outperformed the overall retail category by a greater margin than in 2022. The move from offline to online continued to impact the sales of offline channels – blurring the boundaries between online and offline through the pick-up of online orders from stores, and showrooming. With inflation remaining high and the economy slowing, consumers looked for cheaper retail prices online. There is a long-term trend in play too. Even before the pandemic e-commerce had incre...

Euromonitor International's Retail E-Commerce in Finland report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry.
