Abstracts

E-commerce continued to grow but at a slower rate, partly due to the geopolitical situation. The war in Ukraine has resulted in supply chain disruptions, higher transportation tariffs and high inflation also higher prices for imports, due to currency depreciation. In addition, there was an internet blackout in January 2022, as the government tried to control protects which came about after a sudden sharp increase in liquefied gas prices, as well as growing discontent with the government. The sit Euromonitor International's Retail E-Commerce in Kazakhstan report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers.
