Abstracts

In keeping with the performance of the wider retail market, after the shock of the Russian invasion caused a sharp contraction in 2022, e-commerce in Ukraine saw current value sales rebound at a healthy pace in 2023. Indeed, it was among the channels best placed to meet changes in consumer behaviour brought about by the war. This was primarily because many people became more reluctant to visit physical stores and spend longer periods of time outside the home due to the constant fear of missile a...
