Abstracts

After a challenging 2022 due to high inflation, the emergence of the cost-of-living crisis, and additional pressure on operators due to a surge in utility prices, all of which affected the disposable incomes of local consumers and subsequently led to a decline in retail e-commerce sales in the UK, the channel returned to positivity in 2023. With early signs of improvement in the UK's economic situation and consumers beginning to return to previous purchasing patterns, online sales recorded 5% cu...
