Abstracts

In 2022, as the rate of inflation in the US hit the highest level seen in decades, consumers were forced to look for ways to ration their spending. This had a significant impact on the retail industry, as US residents cut back on purchases of big-ticket items and other discretionary goods. Retail e-commerce was not spared. Online sales growth in 2022 just remained positive in constant terms (i.e., after stripping out the effects of inflation), which was no mean feat, given the downturn in overall...
