Abstracts

Retail in Ireland continued to be impacted by inflationary pressures and high utility costs through 2023, affecting consumers and retailers alike. That said, we did witness some easing of pressures later in the year, both in product pricing and utilities costs. However, overall, this has led to an environment of consumer price-sensitivity, resulting in decreased levels of brand loyalty, and downgrading for budgetary reasons. In turn, this has resulted in the rising popularity of private label an...
