Positive growth was seen in retail in 2022 as shopping in malls remained a popular pastime among Kuwaitis. However, e-commerce boomed during the year as investment in tech start-ups brought more convenience to consumers. Kuwait's population is young, free-spending and tech-savvy and this has made the country attractive to e-commerce players, store-based retailers and tech start-ups looking to integrate social media, m-commerce and the use of apps to offer a seamless digital shopping experience.
