Abstracts

The Middle East and North Africa is gaining prominence on the retail world map and is increasingly being targeted by global retailers for their international development. The recent political storm of the Arab Spring has given the region new hopes, with a far-reaching impact on businesses and consumers. This briefing analyses the region in terms of regulation and retail environment, and highlights the most attractive markets and channels for future development.

Euromonitor International's Retail in the Middle East and North Africa: A Look into a Polarised Region global briefing offers an insight into the size and shape of the retailing industry, highlights emerging trends, their effects on retailing in markets around the world, on the development of channels and consumers' shopping patterns. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market – be they the developments of new store types, the importance of non-store retailing, economic/lifestyle influences, private label or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Non-Store Retailing, Store-based Retailing.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
