Abstracts

The retail and wholesale industry in Japan maintained positive trends in 2018. The positive trajectory, however, should not be taken for granted, as 2018 also proved to be challenging for other service industries, such as the catering and hotels and leisure industries. Service-focused categories in 2018 were facing weaker consumer confidence, stemming from slow wage growth and macroeconomic uncertainties at a global and national level. However, the distribution industry has two support pillars t...
