Abstracts

In 2019, the turbulent economic environment in the EU, owing in part to global trade war issues and uncertainty surrounding the pre- and post-Brexit environment – did not leave Spain untouched. Although the country performed better than some other EU members, the regional economic slowdown had a negative impact on Spain's industrial production during 2019. Subdued activity in the country's manufacturing sector carried over to the services sector and eventually, through lower disposable incomes,...
