Abstracts

Latin America is the fourth largest region globally and is the fastest growing over the forecast period 2018-2023. Despite the macroeconomic instabilities seen over the review period 2013-2018 that have affected retail tissue consumption, there are plenty of opportunities to pursue from premiumisation or expansion in low per capita consumption categories. The region is set to observe gains in volume and value terms as manufacturers stay abreast of changing lifestyles, behaviours and needs.

Euromonitor International's Retail Tissue in Latin America global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the tissue and hygiene market, highlights buzz topics, emerging regions, countries and categories as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the opportunity zones within tissue and hygiene, analyses leading companies and brands, assesses the importance of private label and offers strategic analysis of major factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, economic/lifestyle/environmental influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Away-from-Home Tissue and Hygiene, Retail Tissue and Hygiene, Rx/Reimbursement adult incontinence, Total Tissue and Hygiene.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
