Abstracts

Toilet paper is the largest consumer retail tissue category, and still presents opportunities for the industry, as many markets are characterised by low per capita consumption. However, the category is likely to face challenges from the expansion of smart toilets and more affordable bidet seat attachments. This report assesses the global potential and growth enabling factors for retail toilet paper globally, as well as competition from smart toilets in developed and developing regions.

Euromonitor International's Retail Toilet Paper: Growth, Opportunities, Disruptors global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the tissue and hygiene market, highlights buzz topics, emerging regions, countries and categories as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the opportunity zones within tissue and hygiene, analyses leading companies and brands, assesses the importance of private label and offers strategic analysis of major factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, economic/lifestyle/environmental influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Away-from-Home Tissue and Hygiene, Retail Tissue and Hygiene, Rx/Reimbursement adult incontinence, Total Tissue and Hygiene.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
