Abstracts

Retailing continued to perform well and will retain solid growth in 2021 despite the COVID-19 pandemic continuing to significantly affect Austria. The economy continued to suffer under low tourism (especially from long-haul destinations), which led to reduced spending in non-essential retailing categories. Nevertheless, home seclusion measures were less drastic and non-essential outlets closures were shorter when compared with 2020 allowing consumers to make use of opportunities to eat and drink...

Euromonitor International's Retailing in Austria report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers.
