Abstracts

As the Indian economy recovered in 2021, retailing reported healthy growth, despite a second wave of COVID-19 hitting the country in the first half of the year. Overall retailing saw double-digit growth in 2021, compared with a slight decline in 2020. Recovery was facilitated by more positive consumer sentiment, more discretionary spending, and fewer restrictions during the second wave of COVID-19. Industries such as consumer appliances, beauty and personal care and home care, which were negativ...
