Abstracts

The pandemic had a significant impact on retailing in Israel, with essential grocery retailers, especially discounters and traditional grocery retailers, and health-related channels such as drugstores/parapharmacies witnessing dynamic growth in 2020, as Israelis stocked up on supplies for home consumption during the various lockdowns. On the other hand, non-essential store-based specialists were forced to close for certain periods at the height of the pandemic, leading to drastic declines for th...
