Abstracts

Retailing has seen recovery in 2021, as the government response to the pandemic has seen the economy begin to reopen and consumers resume pre-pandemic habits. The relaxation of lockdown measures, including restrictions on store opening, as well as improving vaccination numbers and infection rates are helping restore consumer confidence, and as a result most channels have seen a bounce in growth as footfall returned. However, in many cases, value sales are yet to return to pre-pandemic levels, an...

Euromonitor International's Retailing in Latvia report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight.
